Honolulu kept the California Knights Templar party busy yesterday. After the greetings at the dock and the march through the streets, the day was occupied with receptions and "stunts." Today the Knights and their ladies are given opportunity for any enjoyment they may shoose. They have a special section for all Carnival events. The photos show (above) the crowd at the wharf yesterday as the Knights arrived, and below, on left, Ernest C. Hueter, generalissimo and châlrman of the excursion, and Leelie S. McMurtry, Eminent Commander, California Commandery No. 1. "He is one of the best-known San Franciscans."

Ambassador Penfield, Acting on Instructions From Lansing, Calls for Clear State ment From Austria; Break With Turkey and Bulgar Seems Near

(Associated Press by, Federal Wireless) LONDON, England, Feb. 20 .-- America has put it directly to the Austronungarian government to repugiati Germany's "unrestricted" naval fare or to say that Austria support the German attitude, according to a Reuter's agency despatch received here today.

The despatch says that Ambassas American representative at V had delivered to the Austro-Hur government a request for a clear final definition of the Austrian atte tude on the submarine warfare as Germany is now operating it.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 20.-15 was learned officially today that Ambassador Penfield's action is under explicit instructions. Ten days ago Penfield was sent his instructions by Secretary of State Lansing.

The administration does not desire break with Austria or with the other Central Powers but is making plain that they must define their titude toward the German U-boat war.

A break with Turkey and Bulgaria is regarded as certain to follow from the present determination of the U. S. government and the answers seem probable to result from its
